

Understanding My Coverage

Health-care service provider delisting

When Sun Life delists health-care service providers, clinics, facilities or medical suppliers (referred to as the “provider” below), we no longer process or pay for claims for services or supplies obtained from that provider. These providers are placed on a Sun Life “delisted providers” list.

Delisted provider update

Our list is updated regularly. To view newly delisted providers, you must sign in to your password-protected web page through mysunlife.ca and select the message for delisted providers.

We encourage you to check the list periodically. This will help you avoid using a delisted provider, which would result in your claim being declined.

We’ll keep you updated

When we delist a health-care service provider, we’ll send you a letter if you’ve submitted a claim for this provider in the last one or two years, depending on the specifics of your plan.

Why delisting a provider is necessary

It’s important that only eligible claims are processed and paid. It allows us to better protect you, your employer and your group benefits plan.
